From time to time, we all need space to bring out our artistic side, and the furniture placement is key, it can't be too crowded, which might influence your creativity; but it also can't be too empty, which also might dull your mind. Only the right amount of ornaments is perfect. First, of course, you need drawing boards and chairs for you and your buddies. And a giant carpet for all the potential mess you are about to make. And obviously, some authentic famous paintings to bring out the sparkle in you. That's pretty much how we came up with this room.
