Forestcore design for Animal Crossing New Horizons interior is not that common, people tend to make a forestcore or cottagecore island with a natural aesthetic. Here we are going to represent an ACNH forestcore room design idea with colorful leaves and the log/wooden furniture set. The Autumn Wall and Colored-leaves Flooring are designed with fallen leaves, you can use them in your autumn designs. The Tree's Bounty Arch also fits well with the background. You can choose some cold colors for Winter or vibrant decor for the upcoming Spring. The log ACNH furniture set is popular in the game, which makes the whole design more rustic.
